"I choose to feel fit."

"My granddaughter used to visit me on her way home from the gym. She would tell me about her workouts and all the great equipment. It sounded fun, but I didn't think it was for me. That was before Belmont Village. Now I exercise three times a week with a licensed physical therapist, on professional equipment designed just for me. Plus, I'm more active now that I have a driver to take me places, lots of social activities, and a chef to do the cooking! And my granddaughter? She wishes she could join my gym!"
