SOUTHLAND SALUTES U.S. VETERANS

Flags wave as a U.S. military plane flies over the fifth annual San Fernando Valley Veterans Day Parade, above, one of many held Tuesday in the Southland. In Fullerton, the 21st annual parade followed a route through downtown, where children from the city's First Christian Preschool watched with their own colorful sign, below. Other celebrations to honor U.S. veterans were held at Forest Lawn-Hollywood Hills and in Inglewood. World War II veteran John Jackson, 96, left, wears his American Legion cap, one of his treasured mementos, at Belmont Village Senior Living in Hollywood Hills.
